

Required Observances (Veterans Day, Constitution Day, Temperance and Good Citizenship Day, Disability History Month)

Principals will be responsible for the preparation and presentation of educational activities of approximately sixty (60) minutes in duration in observance of Veterans Day. The program will be conducted during the school week preceding the eleventh day of November of each year.

Constitution Day will be observed each year on September 17 in commemoration of the September 17, 1787, signing of the United States Constitution. If September 17 occurs on a nonschool day, Constitution Day will be conducted on the preceding Friday.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day shall be observed on the third Monday in January. Appropriate school activities will be held. Temperance and Good Citizenship Day will be observed on January 16 or, if on a non-school day, the Friday preceding January 16.

Disability History Month will be observed during the month of October by conducting or promoting educational activities that provide instruction, awareness and/or understanding of disability history and people with disabilities. Activities may include, but not be limited to, school assemblies, classroom presentations, and guest speakers.
